The 68th Michigan State Convention will be held Oct 1 - 3 at Shanty Creek Resort in Bellaire

The Grapevine has a new publication: "Prayer and Meditation". Stories by members about the many ways they pray and meditate in their daily lives. $11.50 ea/5 or more $10.50 ea.

Bill D gave web report:

Busy staying current with meeting changes. Contacting other websites that may list our meetings and asking them to update info or stop listing as groups are experiencing folks arriving late or not being able to find a meeting listed from other sites.

Old Business:

Our district picnic is still a go for Sept 19 at McCurdy Park and our bases are covered except that we are still in need of another grill. Mike P is working on that Kim will purchase 60 ea hot dogs (Kogels), hamburg patties and buns. Bill will inform Dan B that we won't need rotisserie but he's still on for the condiments.

New Business:

Discussed literature purchased by Mike P from Gary M. Mike did not intend for ShiaCoaa to reimburse stating it was a "one time deal" and he got Gary's inventory for the groups he attends and to be available for purchase from other groups that desire. Fuzzy states he has 60 Big Books and pamphlets for distribution

Discussed a workshop (seminar) to be held at United Methodist Church 200 W McArthur St, Corunna on Saturday Nov, 6. Working title is: The Home Group and the Importance of your General Service representative (GSR). Mark M, our Area 32 delegate to the General Service Conference, has committed to make a presentation on the importance of the GSR. Mark will make presentation in the morning and we will seat a panel on the Home Group after lunch. Denny S announced the Woodcarvers group has relocated to the ZCBJ Hall on Owosso Ave from location on M-21. Change will be made on website.

Next Business meeting will be hosted by the Perry/Morrice Serenity Gp at the Morrice Senior Citizens center on Mon, Nov 1 at 6:00 PM

Kim closed meeting with the Lord's Prayer at 6:55

Attending: Kim D, Liz N, Peg R, Bill D, Randy B, Denny S
